Codify Academy

03 / 2015 - Present

Student

This course has taught me HTML 5, CSS3, Bootstrap 3, and will teach me Javascript, jQuery, AJAX, and JSON. Projects that we have worked on include replicating the Google homepage from scratch. In addition, we have also replicated Photoshopped images of websites using HTML5, CSS3, and Bootstrap. All of our projects have been also made to be viewed across different device platforms such as smartphones, and tablets.
